

Fear Six-Foot Panther Varsity Will Lose Eight Men At Friday's Game With Jordan

The heads of eight Torrance Varsity basketball players will be lopped off when the curtain falls Friday night in the Bay League finale here against Long Beach.

Talking to the courts against the Panthers from Long Beach will be all seniors with the exception of one letterman who will be returning next season.

Out of competition via the graduation route will be Wendell Vaughn at forward and guard; "Wimpy" Chambers, also playing at forward and guard; Captain Bill Wernick at center; Ronnie Higgins, John Kulp and Frankie Costa, all forwards; and Charles Lilley and Jim Smith at guard.

Only first stringer to go against the Panthers who will be back next year is Aramis Dandoy at guard.

Now resting in fifth place, a win by the Tartars would boost the legs into a tie with Jordan for fourth place.

Coach Cliff Graybehl says he will be using a 5-1 defense against the Panthers. The five being his entire squad. The one being Jordan's Joe Handley, a 6-foot, 4-inch center. Last Friday against Beverly Hills, Handley rang up 18 points.

The contest, an evening affair, will follow the Bee game which gets under way at 6:30 p.m.

Here is the probable starting lineup:

Torrance	Jordan
Higgins	Emley
Kulp	F
Wernick	C
Chambers	G
Dandoy	G
	Handley
	Knish
	Carpenter

YOURRRRRRRRRRROU! ! !
..... But It's Good Practice For The Boys In The 'Y's' Softball School.

Photographer Confused; Which Twin Hit the Bag?

By ROBERT LEEDOM

The photographer is chagrined. He was making a picture of the boys in the softball school being conducted by the Y.M.C.A. in preparation for formation of the "Y's" Softball Leagues that start play March 13.

Two of the boys were Russell and Raymond Vanderpool, sons of V. T. Vanderpool, who is heading the school program.

The photographer liked the idea of a father teaching his sons to play softball, so he got a picture of one of them. Ordinarily the photographer notes the names of picture subjects as soon as the picture is completed, but he was making other pictures at the time, and he said to himself (under his breath) "Both the Vanderpool boys look identically alike, but this one walking away from me has on a plain red sweater." The photographer could see the other Vanderpool boy in line waiting for his turn at sliding practice. He was facing the photographer and it was obvious his red sweater had a band around the chest.

The photographer made his other picture, and then looked for the Vanderpool boy with the plain red sweater. Both Vanderpool boys came when he called.

The photographer was perplexed. Both had bands on the chests of their sweaters like the boy waiting in line. He walked around behind.

Both sweaters were plain in back like the boy had who was walking away from him after the picture was made.

The photographer sucked his lower lip, then tried a new tactic. "Which one of you boys was in the picture?"

"I don't know," said the one who called himself Russell.

Current Support Drive Nets 'Y' $3600 to Date

The Y.M.C.A. drive for an $11,500 current support fund has netted $3,599.25 so far in initial gifts, Y.M.C.A. Executive Secretary Milton Isbell said yesterday.

Gifts from different divisions are to date: professional men, $1485; industrial men, $1889; commercial men, $175; service clubs, $50.

The drive started last Friday and will continue until March 3.

"I'm Raymond," said the other one.

The photographer tried again. "Would you know if you saw the picture?"

He received twin blank stares.

So he doesn't know who is in the picture with sackman Ronnie Gates and instructor Tom H. Herrin.

Russell says he doesn't know. The other one says, "I'm Raymond."

Who do you think it is?

Beehawks Sink Talons Deep In Tarbabes

Torrance's Tarbabe basketball team this week was licking 50 wounds put there by the sharp talons of the Redondo Beach Beehawks last Friday.

The contest was won by the Beehawks, 50-37, and set them solidly in second place and also gave them a crack at the Bay League title.

Hotter than a firecracker, but a little late, was Tommy Glatras, Tartar forward, who sank five field goals in the final period to boost his total effort for the game to 16 points.

The Tartar's lanky center, Bill Baron, aided the local squad's effort with nine points before he was pitched out on five fouls in the second half.

The win opened the door to the league championship for the beach team. It will be decided tomorrow night on the Beehawk's court when they meet the Samohi Bees.

Torrance (37): (50) Redondo Glatras (37) F Peddock (14) Carlisle (3) F Becker (11) Baron (9) C Harper (17) Boyce (2) G McCaull (7) Minura (4) G Cope (2) Scoring subs: Torrance—Crawford 2, Stock 1; Redondo—Hernandez, S. Sholtman, 1.

27 Teams Start 'Y' League Play Monday, Mar. 13

There will be 27 teams in three Y.M.C.A. softball leagues this year, Milton Isbell, executive secretary of the "Y," announced following an organization meeting of team leaders this week.

The leagues will be divided into age groups. Boys under 11 years old will have nine teams in the PeeWee League; boys from 11 to 13 will have nine teams in the Midgets; and boys from 13 to 15 will be classed as Juniors.

Approximately 350 to 400 or about half of the boys in those age groups in Torrance are expected to participate in the games.

League play will start Monday, March 13, and games will be played at Municipal Park, Fern avenue, Welteria and Seaside playgrounds every Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday throughout the season, giving every team at least one game a week.

Every effort will be made, Isbell said, to get representation from every area including North Torrance, the Shoestring Strip, Hollywood Riviera, Seaside Ranchos and Welteria.

Volunteer adult leaders will coach and advise each team. The volunteers include Tom Allen, Arthur Arand, Hank Camou, Bill Ferguson, Marvin Goettsch "Tip" Lackey, Robert E. "Bud" Lee, Clyde Millam, Fred Solis, Walt Sharon, V. T. Vanderpool, T. H. Herrin, J. Austin Beasley and Charles Thompson.

Cees Win Third In Capistrano Tournament

The Torrance Cees won third place trophy in their second year at the San Juan Capistrano Double Elimination Tournament last week end.

Last year they carried off first place and Coach Rex Welch credited their over straining to repeat the feat to their losing a crucial game to Anaheim—second place winners. Santa Ana finished off Anaheim for first place this year.

The Torrance team started out with a win bye for the first game and won the second game against Corona '022.

Anaheim then drubbed the Cees 23-13 and the boys finally calmed down in the second half of the final game with Fullerton to come out ahead 28-21 for third place honors.

Top Torrance scorer, as usual, was Co-Captain Jack O'Caing, who tallied 30 points in the three games. Duane Mitian got the feel of the court in the last game and got an 11 to match O'Caing's record in that game.

Favor Fenwick's As City Champs

Locker room conversation is favoring Fenwick's Shoe Shop cagers as this year's champs in the city league with odds varying on the outcome of the final games in the "Blue" Wednesday division.

If Welteria wins over Redondo Sea Food and the division leading Harbor Does drop one to Columbia Steel, Welteria has a chance to be the Blue division winner in a playoff game that would be played February 22 with the winner meeting Fenwick Friday the 24th.

In that case, say the prognosticators, they will side heavily with Fenwick's. However, if Welteria cannot bring off their outside chance at the Blue division championship, the seeds are seeing a closer game between Fenwick's and the Harbor Does, whom some say, should have been in the Black division all season with comparable teams, for better matched play.

If the Does complete their unbeaten record, the Blue-Black game will probably be held Washington's Birthday.
